In addition, you cannot skip the normal distance three times, although you cannot skip further than your remaining movement would allow. Just by reading the description, it seems that I don't just say the difference, and I normally interpret it as the difference, not the height . A ©m of this walking ability (considered a bonus of improvement), these boots allow the user to make big jumps. It is that what these boots do will increase the speed of your base to 30 if it is not already greater.
